PUBERTY WORKSHOP

How do you teach your child about relationships, growing up and sex when they have language processing difficulties and may not understand the subtle cues and nuances of appropriate behaviour?

Sometimes, due to our own embarrassment, it can seem easier to say nothing at all and hope for the best, but that can have catastrophic consequences. It leaves our children very vulnerable to either being taken advantage of themselves, or of entering the criminal justice system later on due to their own lack of understanding of what is and isn't acceptable behaviour.

Mark Brown's session will give you the essential knowledge, understanding, tools and confidence to help your child navigate growing up much more safely
